"Beastly nuisance, isn't it? Spoke to that fellah over there—took him for a gentleman—and found he had a ribbon on his coat; some blooming bead waiter, I suppose."
"Oh, no," replied the other; "that's Blank, the guest of the evening."
"Dosh it all, now, is it?" said the astonished swell. "Look here, old fellow, as you know everybody, would you mind sitting next me at dinner and telling me who everyone is?"

"Should like to very much," replied the other man, "but you see I cannot. I'm the blooming head waiter!"—San Francisco
